

June Volunteer of the Month Celebrated

The Helpline Center congratulates Ken Ahartz on being named the June 2018 Volunteer of the Month, an area-wide award program sponsored by the Helpline Center and Dakotaland Federal Credit Union.

Ken has volunteered with the Brookings Area Habitat for Humanity for over twenty years and continues to loyally volunteer twice weekly on building projects. Ken also delivers Meals on Wheels through his church, drives patients to Sioux Falls to receive treatments for cancer and other medical needs and volunteers with Veterans with Disabilities.

When volunteering, Ken brings a lighthearted personality and will often put a smile on everyone's face. He is very dedicated to helping build these homes to give others a safe place to live. Ken is more than deserving of this award because he selflessly gives of his time and talents to make Brookings a great place for so many to call 'Home'.

We extend a sincere thank you to Ken for his hard work and dedication to volunteerism!
